Well-bred Victorian Rams.

MR. J. L. CURRIE, one of the most eminent wool-growers of Victoria, would be willing to introduce to this Colony a number of his own well-bred Rams, if a market is likely to be found sufficient to induce him to do so.

There can be no doubt that any Rams brought here by Mr. Currie, of his own breeding, would be of very first-rate quality, and the price I am advised would be from £12 to £15 per head. Should any of the Western Australian squatters be inclined to purchase, and will send me their names, before 20th June next, with the number they would be likely to take, if approved, I shall be happy to forward the particulars for Mr. Currie's inward the particulars for Mr. Currie's in-
